SOCIETY

Owing to the fact that the pleasure of a couple of days in the open was too great a temptation for a large number of Honolulu society folk to resist, the dance at the Pacific Club on Friday evening was not the large event anticipated. Nevertheless, those who preferred dancing to out-lying, enjoyed a very delightful evening.

The big hall was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms and ferns relieved by masses of great yellow chrysanthemums. One end of the grounds was screened from the street, with flags and bunting, offering a charmingly cool retreat for the dancers, where they lingered between dances and partook of refreshing punch. A delicious supper was served later in the evening at small tables on the upper floor.

Those noticed among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hagens, Mr. and Mrs. C. Each guest presented Miss Shaw with a gift which will assist her in remembering Hawaii and the pleasant times she had and the many delightful people she met during her visit here.

Cards furnished the evening's entertainment and after close competition, Mrs. W. R. Riley carried off the first prize for women—a pot of anthurium. Mr. James Bicknell won a basket of maidenhair fern, having run up the highest score for men, and Miss Duer claimed the consolation prize—a pot of rosea salvia.
